The Developer in compliance of the provisions of Apartment Ownership Act, 1970 has executed the deed of declaration U/2-A of the said act and subject thereto, it is hereby expressly agreed and declare that the purchasers of all the Row Houses and premises in the said building including the purchaser herein shall join and form an association as contemplated by the said act and the purchaser agrees to join such association, on the completion of the building and receipt by the Developer of the full price of all the Row Houses/ car parking places and other presses in the said building under this and similar deed in respect thereof and all the charges and deposits payable each purchaser to the Developer under this deed and similar deed with other apartment purchasers the Developer has conveyed and assigned all his rights, title and interest in each apartment to each purchaser including the purchaser herein free from all encumbrances. All the legal expenses including the expenses of stamp duty and Registration Charges will be borne by the purchaser alone.
43. It is clearly understood by the purchaser that, the Maharashtra Apartment Ownership Act, 1970, extends to the whole of state of Maharashtra. The said Act came in to the force in such areas on such dates as the State Govt. may, by Notification in the official Gazette appoint and different dates may be appointed for different areas. The said Act is applicable within the limits of Municipal Corporation, Aurangabad.
44. It is clearly understood by the purchaser that the Developer has submitted his project to the provisions of Maharashtra Apartment Ownership Act, 1970. The Maharashtra Legislature has passed two Acts of 1963 & 1970, governing the ownership Row Houses, but their functions & field of operations are different and the difference is as below :
45. The Row House Ownership Act, 1963 namely relates the Row House owners who form co-op. Hsg. Society, while the Row House owners under the Apartment Ownership Act, 1970 are independent owners of their Row Houses & not subject to any body like a society. The condominium form by the Association of the Row House owners is only for regulating their mutual relations and has no existence like Co-op. Society. The Row House Ownership Act, 1963 & the Maharashtra Apartment Ownership Act, 1970, are not exclusively of each other but they are complementary to each other.
46. The Developer shall be the promoter in respect of the said construction work within the meaning of the Maharashtra Apartment Ownership Act, 1970. The Promoter has already submitted the project to the provisions of the Maharashtra Apartment Ownership Act 1970, by executing the registered Deed of Declaration. After issuance of the completion Certificate by the Aurangabad Municipal Corporation, the Promoter shall execute the Deed of Apartment/Sale Deed in favour of the each of the Row House/unit Purchaser & each of the apartment/Row House/Unit owner shall be entitled to the exclusive ownership & possession of his apartment/Row House/unit as provided in the Maharashtra Apartment Ownership Act, 1970, in such cases it shall not be lawful to form any co-op society under the Maharashtra Co-Op Societies Act 1960 or 1963. The Promoter under this agreement & the proposed Registered Deed of Apartment/Sale Deed has transferred the undivided proportionate title in the common areas in favour of the each of the unit/Apartment/Row House Purchaser as well as in favour of the Association of Row House owners hence no independent/separate Conveyance Deed is required to execute in favour of the Association of Row House owners. The Promoter under this Agreement has already handed over all the project documents & Plans, proportionate title in the common areas to the Purchaser as well as to the Association of the Row House/Apartment/Unit Owners.
47. On and from the appointed day, the Maharashtra Ownership Row Houses (Regulation of the Promotion of Construction, Sale, Management and Transfer) Act 1963, has repealed by the Maharashtra Housing (Regulation and Development) Act 2012 (MOFA Act) & the Maharashtra Housing (Regulation and Development) Act 2012 (MOFA Act) is repealed by the Real Estate (Regulation and Development) Act 2016 (RERA Act). The Maharashtra Apartment Ownership Act 1970, has not been repealed. However, in case of inconsistent provisions, the provisions of the RERA Act shall prevail.
48. It is agreed in between the parties that after formation of the elected body of the Apartment Owner's Association, the promoter shall inform the Registrar of Societies, as defined in the Maharashtra Apartment Ownership Act, 1970, as soon as possible.

49. That, each floors are use capable of individual utilization on account of having their own exit to a common area and facility and of the building and the Apartment will be sold to one or more owners, each owner obtaining a particular and exclusive property-right thereto and each Apartment constituting a heritable and transferable, immovable properties within the meaning of any law for the time being in force in the case and also an undivided interest in the general and/or restricted common areas and facilities of the building as listed hereinafter in this deed, necessary for their adequate use and enjoyment and hereinafter in referred to as General and/or restricted common areas and facilities, all of the above in accordance with the Maharashtra Apartment Ownership Act 1970.
50. That, as stated above the plan of Apartment ownership is hereby constituted under and subject to the provisions of the Maharashtra Apartments Ownership Act.
51. That, the undivided interest in the general and/or restricted common areas and facilities shall not be separated from the family unit to which it appertains and shall be deemed conveyed or encumbered with the unit even though such interest is not expressly mentioned of described in the conveyance or other instrument.
52. That each apartment owner of "MAHALAXMI UTSAV" Condominium shall comply with the provisions of this deed, bye-laws, decisions and resolution of the both the associations of the apartment owners or representation and failure to comply with the such provisions, decisions or resolutions shall be ground for action to recover the sums or damages for injunction relief/s.
