to find yourself absent at the required construction, my client regularly calling you and your son after reaching the construction utter dismay as you and your son kept on avoiding my client call 12. My client therefore calls upon you to refrain yourself from doing act and deed which is prejudicial to the interests of my client. co operation is warranted so as to enable my client to effect development of the construction activity on the plot with better interest of both the parties. Further in case my client is and subject to any litigation towards the completion for the along with your son shall be liable to indemnify my client for and consequences towards the litigation.
